

Nestled in the heart of the Fraser Valley, the Kilby Historic Site is a unique destination for tour buses and adult groups.

Stretch your legs as you travel back to an original 1906 General Store and farm, complete with original merchandise. Observe the antics of our friendly farm animals. Choose one of our popular add-ons to give your group a historic trip to remember!

Groups are welcome to explore on their own or book an interactive experience. The Kilby Historic Site offers complimentary admission for the bus driver and director (as well as complimentary lunch if booked for the group).

Adult Groups

A. Group Admission - self-guided

10% off regular admission for groups of 15 or more

Every season lends different magic to the site. Self-guided tours are fun and easy with maps and schedules distributed upon arrival. Wander the site at your leisure. Costumed interpreters will be available throughout the site to answer questions and share information. *See details section for information regarding payment

B. Guided Heritage Tour $16/person plus GST (45 minutes )

Minimum charge, 15 people

Journey back in time and learn about the thriving community of Harrison Mills during its heyday. A lively costumed guide will lead participants through the Heritage site including Farm, 1906 General Store and Manchester House Hotel.

Lunch

Group Soup and Sandwich Lunch Menu
